| | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |
| (4) commission rates paid? | Yes | No |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> |

- B. Does applicant or a related person suggest brokers to clients? Yes No

For each yes answer to A describe on Schedule F any limitations on the authority. For each yes to A(3), A(4) or B, describe on Schedule F the factors considered in selecting brokers and determining the reasonableness of their commissions. If the value of products, research and services given to the applicant or a related person is a factor, describe:

- the products, research and services
- whether clients may pay commissions higher than those obtainable from other brokers in return for those products and services
- whether research is used to service all of applicant's accounts or just those accounts paying for it; and
- any procedures the applicant used during the last fiscal year to direct client transactions to a particular broker in return for products and research services received.

13. Additional Compensation.

Does the applicant or a related person have any arrangements, oral or in writing, where it:

- A. is paid cash by or receives some economic benefit (including commissions, equipment or non-research services) from a non-client in connection with giving advice to clients? Yes No
- B. directly or indirectly compensates any person for client referrals? Yes No

(For each yes, describe the arrangements on Schedule F.)

14. Balance Sheet. Applicant must provide a balance sheet for the most recent fiscal year on Schedule G if applicant:

- has custody of client funds or securities (unless applicant is registered or registering only with the Securities and Exchange Commission); or
 - requires prepayment of more than $500 in fees per client and 6 or more months in advance
- Has applicant provided a Schedule G balance sheet? Yes No

Item of Form (identify)	Answer
----------------------------	--------

Item ID	As discussed below in this disclosure statement, the Registrant, if engaged to do so, may provide its clients (i.e. individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, and business entities) with retirement/investment planning consulting services, and discretionary investment management services. The Registrant does not provide comprehensive financial planning services or insurance planning services. CONSULTING SERVICES Registrant generally provides retirement/investment planning consulting services to its clients. The Registrant will generally charge a fixed fee for these services. Registrant's consulting fees are negotiable, but generally range from $1,500 to $10,500 on a fixed fee basis depending upon the level and scope of the service(s) required. Prior to engaging the Registrant to provide consulting services, the client will generally be required to enter into a Limited Consulting Agreement with Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions of the engagement, describing the scope of the services to be provided, and the portion of the fee that is due from the client prior to Registrant commencing services. INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT The client can determine to engage the Registrant to provide discretionary investment advisory services on a fee-only basis. The Registrant's annual investment management fee shall be based upon a percentage (%) of the market value of the assets placed under the Registrant's management, and shall generally range from .55% to 2.00% to be fully disclosed to the client in Registrant's engagement agreement. Registrant's annual investment management fee shall be prorated and paid quarterly, in arrears, based upon the average month-end market value of the assets during the previous quarter. For those clients whose assets are allocated within a Wrap Program in which case the billing information will be further specified in the Wrap Program Brochure (e.g., Schedule H) prepared by the wrap program sponsor, Genworth. The Registrant generally requires a minimum account of $500,000 for investment management services for new clients. However, Registrant, in its sole discretion, may reduce its fee minimum and/or charge a lesser investment management fee based upon certain criteria (i.e. anticipated future earning capacity, anticipated future additional assets, dollar amount of assets to be managed, related accounts, account composition, negotiations with client, etc.). In the event that the client requests that the Registrant recommend a broker-dealer/custodian for execution and/or custodial services (exclusive of those clients that may direct the Registrant to use a specific broker-dealer/custodian), Registrant generally recommends that investment management accounts be maintained at Charles Schwab & Co., Inc. ("Schwab") or TD Ameritrade ("Ameritrade"), or a trust company. Prior to engaging Registrant to provide investment management services, the client will be required to enter into a formal Investment Advisory Agreement with Registrant setting forth the terms and conditions under which Registrant shall manage the client's assets, and a separate custodial/clearing agreement with each designated broker-dealer/custodian. Currently, the Registrant primarily allocates (or recommends that its clients allocate) investment management assets among various mutual funds and exchange traded funds, or among unaffiliated investment managers or programs, including those provided and/or sponsored by ICON Advisors, Inc. ("ICON") or Genworth Financial Wealth Management. ("Genworth"), in accordance with the client's designated investment objective(s). In the event that client assets are to be actively managed by ICON, Genworth, or any other independent manager or investment program sponsor, the terms

	and conditions of such engagements shall be set forth in a separate written agreement and/or disclosure document. Otherwise, if the Registrant is to actively manage client assets, the Registrant shall generally recommend that Schwab or Ameritrade serve as the broker-dealer/custodian for client investment management assets. Custodians such as Schwab and Ameritrade charge brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees for effecting certain securities transactions (i.e. transaction fees are charged for certain no-load mutual funds, commissions are charged for individual equity and fixed income securities transactions). In addition to Registrant's investment management fee, brokerage commissions and/or transaction fees, the client will also incur, relative to all mutual fund and exchange traded fund purchases, charges imposed at the fund level (e.g. management fees and other fund expenses). Both Registrant's Investment Advisory Agreement and the custodial/clearing agreement may authorize the custodian to debit the account for the amount of the Registrant's investment advisory fee and to directly remit that management fee to the Registrant in compliance with regulatory procedures. In the limited event that the Registrant bills the client directly, payment is due upon receipt of the Registrant's invoice. The Investment Advisory Agreement between the Registrant and the client will continue in effect until terminated by either party by written notice in accordance with the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement. Factors that the Registrant considers in recommending Schwab & Ameritrade (or any other broker-dealer/custodian to clients) include historical relationship with the Registrant, financial strength, reputation, execution capabilities, pricing, research, and service. Although the commissions and/or transaction fees paid by Registrant's clients shall comply with the Registrant's duty to obtain best execution, a client may pay a commission that is higher than another qualified broker-dealer might charge to effect the same transaction where the Registrant determines, in good faith, that the commission/transaction fee is reasonable in relation to the value of the brokerage and research services received. In seeking best execution, the determinative factor is not the lowest possible cost, but whether the transaction represents the best qualitative execution, taking into consideration the full range of a broker-dealer's services, including the value of research provided, execution capability, commission rates, and responsiveness. Accordingly, although Registrant will seek competitive rates, it may not necessarily obtain the lowest possible commission rates for client account transactions. The brokerage commissions or transaction fees charged by the designated broker-dealer/custodian are exclusive of, and in addition to, Registrant's investment management fee. The Registrant's best execution responsibility is qualified if securities that it purchases for client accounts are no-load mutual funds that trade at net asset value as determined at the daily market close. MISCELLANEOUS Please Note: The Registrant does not recommend individual securities transactions for its client accounts. However, in the event that a client requests a specific individual security transaction and the Registrant agrees to accommodate such request on a non-discretionary basis, the Registrant's ability to effect "best execution" as to: (1) price may be limited due to the size of the transaction; and/or, (2) cost, in that broker-dealers, other than those that may be recommended by the Registrant, may effect the transaction at a lower transaction fee or commission. In performing its services, Registrant shall not be required to verify any information received from the client or from the client's other professionals, and is expressly authorized to rely thereon. If requested by the client, Registrant may recommend the services of other professionals for implementation purposes. The client is under no obligation to engage the services of any such recommended professional. The client retains absolute discretion over all such implementation
